Citi Appoints Hong Kong Head of Banking, Capital Markets and Advisory

Hong Kong – Citi announced today the appointment of Alex Schrantz as Head of Banking, Capital Markets and Advisory (BCMA) for Hong Kong, effective immediately. Alex reports to both Jan Metzger, Asia Pacific Head of BCMA, and Angel Ng, Hong Kong and Macau CEO. He will continue his role as Asia Pacific Head of Corporate Finance.

Based in Hong Kong since 1999, Alex has close to 30 years of global banking experience advising leading companies on capital markets and strategic transactions. He joined Citi in 2012 and has been responsible for overseeing all of Citi's capital markets execution in the Asia Pacific region. He previously served as a member of the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong from 2006 to 2010.

Commenting on the appointment, Angel said, "Alex's experience and strong track record in capital markets make him the ideal candidate to lead our Hong Kong corporate and investment banking business, which counts some of the largest local corporates and public sector organizations, financial institutions, and subsidiaries of global companies as clients."

In 2020, Citi helped Hong Kong clients raise over US$40 billion from global capital markets. Year to date, the bank has completed 14 equity and debt deals in Hong Kong raising over US$15 billion.
